Known as a 'Controversial Blogger', Geoff Jennings is gaining a reputation as a man who speaks his mind. His blog <http://geoffjennings.com/> contains news about the online recruitment industry. Importantly, however, it also focusses on Geoff's opinions about happenings in this ever-changing and rapidly-growing area.

These opinions are based on over ten years' experience in online media, working in senior management roles for Fairfax Digital, MyCareer.com.au and realestate.com.au. In 2005, Geoff formed his own company, Online Recruitment, which services the digital media and games industries. For more information please visit <http://www.onrec.com.au>
