We are 'Online Recruitment' and that is what makes us interesting. Our main focus is the supply of talent to clients with IT&T and Games experience.

As the well-documented growth in the online space continues, agencies, consultancies, media specialists, technology providers and marketers face a familiar challenge; the acquisition and retention of quality staff.

As a professional recruitment consultancy focusing on the interactive space (Web, Games, Media), Online Recruitment has an unrivalled reputation for delivering the talent - from programmers through to CEO level

We also have consultants with a wide breadth of knowledge about industries other than online and pride ourselves on being able to source high quality candidates for any job available. We achieve this through our passion for people and the effective use of digital media channels to communicate. We also happen to enjoy (and are pretty good at) sourcing talented executives and engaging with the leading companies to assist with their hiring requirements a.k.a .recruiting.

As a team we are committed to the highest standards of recruiting best practice and add value the client/candidate experience via our in-depth knowledge of the market .

Candidates come to us first as they know we give them objective advice on appropriate openings and more importantly, the Online Recruitment team can get them in front of the leading companies in the interactive market.

Clients engage us as they are assured that Online Recruitment delivers the best pre-screened talent available.
